

WHAT TO DO IN MARSEILLE?

First thing first: Welcome in Marseille!

Marseille isn't just a place to visit, it's rather a place to experience. Between the sea, the sunshine, the cuisine, and its characterful neighbourhoods, the city has a unique charm you'll quickly fall for.

Population: 870 000

Founded: around 600 BC by the Greeks (oldest city in France)

Football club: OM (Olympique de Marseille)

Nicknames: Planète Mars', la cité phocéenne, Massilia

Where to enjoy great food in Marseille?

Marseille is packed with great spots and hidden gems! At Soléo Prado, we love to explore, taste, and most of all, share our favorites with you. Our team is here to help with any reservations.

Breakfast

Before discovering our favorite spots, why not start with the one just steps from your room? At Soléo, enjoy a delicious full breakfast buffet, served Monday to Friday from 6:30 AM to 10:00 AM and on weekends from 7:00 AM to 10:30 AM.

In a hurry? Grab a takeaway breakfast (coffee and pastry) for €6, you just have to order it the day before by 6 PM.

To enjoy one of the best butter croissants in the city, head to Sylvain Depuichaffray, a true reference for pastries and viennoiseries.

Coffee lovers will appreciate Boujou Café.

We recommend taking your coffee to go and enjoying it by the sea in the charming coves of Malmousque. An ideal way to start the day.

WHAT TO DO IN MARSEILLE?

Lunch

Brunch enthusiasts will love Deïa, a must-visit in Marseille.

For gourmet sandwiches prepared by chefs, visit Razzia, located in the lively Notre-Dame-du-Mont and Cours Julien district. For a sunny lunch, La Passarelle is a safe bet: Mediterranean cuisine, a relaxed guinguette atmosphere, and a pétanque court to make the experience last a little longer.

Afternoon snack

The best ice-cream in Marseille ? In our opinion, it's Ciao Amore !

For a unique sweet treat, indulge in the vegan creations of Oh Faon!, a local pastry shop full of softness and creativity.

«Apéro» (pre-dinner drink)

Fancy a drink with a view? Le Rooftop Les Réformés offers panoramic views over Marseille, along with an elegant menu for drinks or dinner.

Prefer an aperitif by the water? Le Cabanon de Paulette is the perfect spot to enjoy summer and sunset (one of our personal favorites as well).

Diner

For seafood lovers, Poissonnerie Kennedy, located on the Corniche, is a safe bet.

For a true, authentic Marseille bouillabaisse, head to Chez Michel.

Soléo's favorite:

RockyPop Marseille (reservation recommended)

With its relaxed atmosphere, RockyPop is the perfect place for a generous lunch, a friendly dinner, or simply to enjoy the rooftop. Comforting cuisine, a fun setting, and a laid-back vibe: a perfect spot just a few steps from Place Castellane.

Restaurant Limmat (reservation recommended)

Hidden in the colourful stairways of Cours Julien, this small restaurant offers simple, fresh, seasonal cuisine. A short menu, but a lot of passion on the plate. A discreet address... and a real gem.

